

Come join us for CUMC's Alpha Course Spring 2019

Alpha is an 11-week series of sessions exploring the Christian faith that has touched the lives of over 29 million people spanning 169 countries and 112 different languages. Each week looks at a different question based around faith and is designed to create conversation in a safe, non-threatening environment. Whether you're a long-time Christian, new Christian, or non-Christian, all are invited to take part in Alpha. Dinner is provided for all participants and there are no obligations for those in attendance.

The first session information is as follows:

Start Date: Wednesday, April 24th

Frequency: Eleven (11) consecutive Wednesdays + one (1) Saturday session

Time: 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Location: CUMC Book Café (adjacent to Naeri Chapel)

RSVP By: April 22nd

Sign Up Form: Available in the back of Naeri Chapel or online at:

tinyurl.com/cumcalpha2019

For more general information on Alpha, please visit <https://alpha.org/>, or please contact, Jon Hanai (jon.hanai@gmail.com), with any questions.